Northern Superior Resources Announces June 1, 2015 Trial Date for Litigation Against the Ontario Government

Sudbury, Ontario – (November 4, 2014) –Northern Superior Resources Inc. (“Northern Superior” or the “Company”) (TSXV: SUP) is pleased to provide the following update on the litigation proceedings against the Ontario Government concerning the Company’s Thorne Lake, Meston Lake and Rapson Bay properties.

- The Superior Court Judge overseeing the Company’s litigation against the Ontario Government has fixed June 1, 2015 as the trial date.
- Four weeks have been set aside for the trial.
- At the October 30, 2014 Case Conference, the sixth one in the case, Northern Superior proposed an aggressive timetable for getting the case ready for trial, which after consideration by Ontario will be fixed by the Judge on November 7, 2014.
- The pre-trial steps agreed on include holding a mediation before an independent third party on or about February 1, 2015.

Dr. T.F. Morris President and CEO states: “I am obviously pleased that a fixed date for the trial has been set. This clearly provides some finality to what has been a long process. Northern Superior looks forward with confidence to the trial date.”
